Hi,

I cannot believe that the us government are not going to tear Microsoft apart for years of bullying and abuse of of their monopolistic position. They now have access to SGI's 3D technology which they will use to force OPEN GL out in favour of their own proprietry Direct 3D. A cynic would suggest that this makes much of the US government look as though it is in Microsoft's pocket.

To suggest that the best way of punishing them is to give them a monopoly in Education is disgusting. Who runs the USA? The government? the people? or Microsoft?

Thanx
